

MAJOR COURSE REVIEW PANELS: COMPOSITION

Faculty Boards establish panels to undertake major course reviews. The panels comprise:

- a) an academic staff member from another School in the Faculty
- b) at least two external Advisory Board members who are representatives of employer groups or professions that employ graduates of the course or discipline
- c) an academic from another university with expertise in an associated discipline
- d) a member of the Faculty course team
- e) a representative of the professional association (where appropriate)
- f) a representative from Deakin Learning Futures
- g) a graduate from the course
- h) a current student of the course
- i) other members at the discretion of the Faculty Board.