

SCHEDULE A: MAJOR COURSE REVIEW PANELS: COMPOSITION

(Approved by Academic Board on 27 February 2017)

This schedule is made pursuant to the Higher Education Courses Approval and Review Procedure.

Faculty Boards establish panels to undertake major course reviews. The panels comprise:

- an academic staff member from another School in the Faculty
- at least two external Advisory Board members who are representatives of employer groups or professions that employ graduates of the course or discipline
- an academic from another university with expertise in a related discipline
- a representative of the professional association (where appropriate)
- a graduate from the course
- a current student of the course
- other members at the discretion of the Faculty Board who are not members of the course team.
