

Employment of Staff policy

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) This Policy is effective from 21 June 2022.

Section 2 - Purpose

(2) This Policy supports the University's commitment to creating fulfilling experiences across the employment lifecycle in the way we attract, develop, promote, engage and retain our staff.

Section 3 - Scope

(3) This Policy applies to all prospective and current staff of the University.

Section 4 - Policy

Inclusion and flexibility

(4) The University is committed to fostering a flexible, inclusive and dynamic workforce and providing employment conditions that support individuals of all backgrounds, cultures, abilities, gender and other identities to participate, thrive and balance work and life needs.

(5) The University promotes and supports a range of flexible work arrangements including blended working arrangements for all staff. Blended working means staff will work from a blend of locations. For most staff, this consists of a combination of on-campus activities and working from home.

Attracting and retaining our staff

(6) The University will recruit, select and appoint staff based on merit and on terms consistent with University Statute or Regulations and any other legal requirements and in accordance with the provisions of:

- a. the current Deakin University Enterprise Agreement 2017(EA)
- b. Senior Staff Performance Contracts
- c. other contracts of employment.

(7) The University is committed to providing increased employment opportunities to our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities as stated in the University's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy.

(8) The University is also committed to increasing the participation of women in senior academic roles in accordance with our Gender Equity Action Plan.

(9) All appointments must support and enable the achievement of the University's Strategy and Guiding Plans, align with the University's Job Framework and optimise the staffing profiles of Faculties and Portfolios as part of their workforce planning.

(10) The terms and conditions of employment for staff, including provisions relating to salary and any allowances, will be determined by the Vice-Chancellor pursuant to authority delegated by University Council and in accordance with the provisions of:

- a. the EA;
- b. relevant legislation or other legal requirement;
- c. Senior Staff Performance Contracts; and/or
- d. other contracts of employment as are applicable or may be appropriate.

Appointments made by the Vice-Chancellor

(11) The Vice-Chancellor will appoint Academic, Professional and Honorary staff whose appointment is not otherwise specified in the University Statute or Regulations.

(12) The Vice-Chancellor will report to University Council in respect of all senior appointments and will notify the Academic Board of all appointments of Executive Deans, Deputy Deans, Associate Deans, Heads of School, Associate Heads of School, Principal Officers of Institutes and Professors.

Development and promotion

(13) The University is committed to building the capabilities and effectiveness of its staff through a range of development opportunities which will assist them to develop their careers and contribute to the achievement of the University's strategic goals.

(14) The responsibility for identifying and supporting staff development is shared by individual staff members and their leaders:

- a. Staff members are encouraged to take responsibility for their own work-related learning and career development. They are also encouraged to assist others in their development.
- b. Leaders are responsible for encouraging and facilitating professional development activities based on the priority of their work area and the University.

(15) The learning and development needs of staff members are primarily identified by the leader and staff member through the DeakinAchieve framework including for new staff as part of setting their probationary objectives as part of DeakinAchieve (see Probation website).

(16) People and Culture is responsible for coordinating University wide development opportunities for academic and professional staff as well as coordination of academic promotions in accordance with the Academic Promotion policy and procedure.

(17) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic is responsible for the development of the University priorities and the provision of teaching development programs for academic staff.

(18) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor Research is responsible for the development of the University priorities and the provision of research development and training.

(19) Faculties and Portfolios are responsible for the provision of any vocational development required by their staff.

(20) Casual Academic staff engaged to deliver teaching for at least one teaching period within an Academic Year, are eligible for up to four hours of paid induction (first year only) and professional learning and development (subsequent years) activities annually in accordance with the Deakin University Enterprise Agreement 2017 and the Casual

Retaining our staff

(21) Whilst the University seeks to provide an environment where staff can fulfil their career aspirations, the University will also support staff as they transition from the University in accordance with the Leaving Deakin procedure.

(22) The University's Code of Conduct and a staff member's contract of employment reflects the University's values and the standards of conduct and performance of all staff.

(23) Where the University has concerns in relation to a staff member's conduct or performance this will be managed in accordance with the Staff Discipline procedure.

Section 5 - Procedure

(24) The following Procedures document how to comply with this Policy:

- a. Recruitment of Staff procedure
